1. Membership of a Members Association known as the “International Association of Event Hosts” (“IAEH”) is subject to an annual membership fee (GBP ~~750~~ 600 / EUR ~~895~~ 715 / USD ~~995~~ 795 as of 4th April 2017). All Members are free to terminate Membership at any time.
2. The principal objects of IAEH are
 - i) To support the successful delivery of, and generate the best possible benefits from, major sporting and cultural events for citizens and communities across the world
 - ii) To be a platform to share knowledge and experiences to enable better decision-making for its members from city, regions and countries around the world
 - iii) To be a collective voice of its members to represent views of host organisations over strategic issues
3. The IAEH is a not-for-profit company limited by guarantee owned by its members. Any annual surplus income over expenditure from the Association’s activities will be held in reserve to serve the purposes of the IAEH.
4. The IAEH is managed by Directors who are elected by members at Annual General Meetings. The board will meet at least once every year and a quorum to conduct business shall be a minimum of 50% of the Directors. Decisions of the Directors will be made by a majority of votes cast.
5. An annual meeting for Members is held once every year, usually held alongside another industry event. The approval of financial reports will be voted by Members at this meeting. Decisions of the Members will be made by a majority of votes cast.
6. The qualification for Membership is as a city, province, region, country, or organisations representing same, that has a bona fide present intention to host a major sporting or cultural event.
7. Membership is included on the IAEH website (www.eventhosts.org) and Members are encouraged to display their Membership of IAEH by including the logo with the appropriate copyright notice on website and promotional materials.
